

Hello, Class of 2024!

Welcome to UVA! I know that this is a difficult time to be entering college in so many ways, but I'm also optimistic that you & your classmates will be creative in finding chances to make the most of your time here—whether you are on Grounds or at home. Remember that you belong at UVA, and your fellow Hoos are very excited to have you join our community! Let's make the most of it!

Even though this year will undoubtedly look different, I want to remind you that there is still a lot to look forward to! I'm thinking about some of my favorite memories over the past few years, and yes, some of them aren't possible during a pandemic, but there are definitely still things I'm able to continue! I've found my home in several organizations, including the Virginia No Tones (an a capella group for the ~musically inept~) and Culture of Respect Educators (CORE). While the groups are really different, they both offer community, development, and friendship! CORE allows me to give back to UVA by peer-to-peer education related to sexual respect. And the No Tones are a source of humor and happiness for everyone!

I encourage you to push yourself to try new things during your time here, even during this mostly virtual semester. I'm confident that you will find your home at UVA, just like I have. I wish you nothing but the best with your first semester and the rest of your time here. We're all excited to have you here!

And remember, wear that mask, social distance, and hold your friends & classmates to the same standard <3

Go Hoos!

Sincerely,
Logan
